

Local census problems gain national attention

BY TRACI BONNEY

The census woes of Bay St. Louis have reached the ears of the national media.

World Monitor Television on the Discovery Channel sent a camera crew, correspondent and producer to Hancock County earlier this week to discover the facts behind the City of Bay St. Louis' challenge to the census housing counts.

Producer Pat Reynolds said, "Hancock County, Bay St. Louis in particular, has one of the biggest census undercounts in the state of Mississippi."

The Washington, D.C.-based news crew interviewed city officials, including Mayor Edward Favre, and residents throughout Bay St. Louis.

Easterbrook Street residents Earl Robinson and Samuel Sheppard said during the filmed interviews that many of their neighbors were missed in the census, either because they did not receive forms, they did not fill the forms out or they were not at home when census workers conducted house-to-house interviews in the neighborhood.

The mayor said his interview consisted mainly of explaining people in 10 years, they decided to challenge the housing count.

Favre said because the population figures represent a preliminary count which is not considered to be accurate, the city could not challenge the population count.

The problem with an inaccurate

"Evidently, all the screaming and kicking did some good" —Favre to correspondent Paul Miller the situation and the steps the city has taken in an effort to change it.

The city recently challenged the 1990 census housing count, which was 150 houses fewer than the 1980 count. When city officials saw that the preliminary population count shows that the city gained only five rate population count, he explained, is that it may result in loss of population-based state and federal monies to the city.

If the Census Bureau figures go uncorrected, Favre said, it could mean a revenue loss of between $1,500 and $5,000 over a 10-year period for each person in Bay St. Louis not included in

Du Pont DeLisle group receives OSHA Star Award

The Du Pont Construction Group at the Du Pont plant in DeLisle has qualified for participation in the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) Voluntary Protection Program at the Star Level, the highest of three levels of participation.

This is a first within Du Pont, and only the fourth construction site in the southeastern United States to qualify.

The Voluntary Protection Program is intended to supplement compliance with OSHA standards by encouraging voluntary improvements and expansions to worker protection systems.

In 1983, the plant itself became the first chemical plant in the nation to qualify as a Star participant.

"We are very proud to be the first Du Pont construction site to be approved for Star participation in OSHA's Voluntary Protection Program," said Jack Farmer, construction manager at the plant.

"This was a tremendous team effort that supplemented the Engineering Department's safety program to create a safety program of very high quality for a new construction site. Our challenge now is to maintain this program through the end of the project next year."

An awards ceremony was held at the DeLisle plant on Sept. 12 at which OSHA presented the construction group with a certificate and flag. Local officials and corporate representatives were on hand.

BE&K Construction of Birmingham, Ala., the largest contractor on the project, received special recognition with a certificate from OSHA.

The Du Pont DeLisle Plant manufactures titanium dioxide, a white pigment used in paint, paper, plastics and a number of other applications. The project under construction will almost double the plant's capacity to 270,000 tons per year.

Temporary water line cause of HHS problem

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

A short section of line connecting two water systems was targeted by Health Department officials as the site of contamination which caused a Hancock High School water to fall below standards prior to the school opening.

Mississippi State Health Department engineer David Peaks reported the emergency line which connects the high school water system with that of Stennis Air Park turned out to be the culprit.

The school corrected the problem and has met health standards consistently since opening.

"It had nothing to do with the plumbing or mechanical contractors for the school," said Peaks, "they did an excellent job on the school."

In an earlier story of the Sea Coast Echo, Vol. 99, No. 73, Thursday September 13, 1990, titled "County school water", it was reported that the Hancock Junior/Senior High School water failed health standards prior to opening.

The new school was unable to hook up with its intended supplier, the Kiln Fire and Water Department, at that time. As a temporary measure the school contracted with the Air Park.

Supervisors, fire district commissioners join forces

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors and commissioners representing nine county fire districts met Wednesday, September 19 to answer questions and open the door to better communications.

Board president Ronald Cuevas said, "Our purpose here is to try to get everyone pointed in the same direction."

The board asked that the various departments direct their questions through Fire Marshal Jay Marsh, allowing his office to act as a bulletin system for the districts.

Marsh gave the districts a rule of thumb to follow in spending state monies saying, "To enhance any permanent part of a fire engine is capital gain, while anything to fight a fire is maintenance."

Capital gain is purchased by insurance rebate monies, while maintenance purchases are to be made with all other tax monies, explained Marsh.

The districts are required to purchase a fidelity and proper performance bond on commissioners. The board suggested the districts look into the bonding of positions rather than individuals, as a means to save money.

Tax Assessor Edward Murtagh informed the districts that as more people reach age 65, property tax revenues decrease, as in the Diamondhead area.

Murtagh also stressed the increase of utilities to be a benefit to the districts as they receive a portion of those taxes.

The recent delinquent property tax sale will provide some monies to the various districts.

Each will receive a share of the properties within their particular districts which were purchased by individuals.

Board Attorney Gerald Gex gave legal opinion on whether or not liability insurance was necessary.

Under the solvent immunity law of the state, fire district vehicles could not be sued unless proven to be used recklessly, explained Gex.

"But I wouldn't tell you not to have insurance," said Gex.

The districts questioned Ken Walker of the county audit department about a yearly compliance audit.

The districts were most concerned with the additional expense of hiring a certified public accountant, under an already limited budget.

On Your Birthday
Born Sept. 24, 1949
Killed Aug. 14, 1979

Rest peacefully now, my precious son.

It's hard to believe your life is done.

I'm thankful for all the years I had

With you, my son, and your loving dad.

It saddens my heart to think of you both.

It's hard to say whom I miss the most.

I'm all alone and the day lingers on.

But it's at night when I feel all alone.

Part of you is still in our home.

At times it's hard to think you're gone.

I'll leave your room forever untouched,

Oh my son, I miss you so much.

Clarification

In Vol. 99, No. 73 issue of The Sea Coast Echo an article on the Hancock County High School's water supply failing to meet health standards, a state health department official related "in a rush to open the school, the lines were not properly disinfected."

In a subsequent interview it was determined a temporary line connecting Stennis Air Park and the school's water supply was the site of the problem. The plumbing and mechanical contractors for the school were not involved in the installation of the faulty line.

Mississippi Does Not Enjoy The Advantages Of An OPEN PRIMARY.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

You, as a voter, cannot vote for a mayoral candidate of one political party and an alderman of an opposing party in the Democratic and Republican Primaries.

I have represented you loyally for the past 12 years. I wish to continue my service to all the people of Ward 1. To allow all of you, my steadfast friends and supporters, the opportunity to exercise your right to vote for the Mayoral candidate of your choice, regardless of party affiliation, I hereby declare:

I will NOT run in either the Democratic or Republican Primary on November 6th. My name will not appear on either ballot. I WILL RUN as an "INDEPENDENT" candidate in the General Election on December 4th. You can cast your vote for ME and the Mayoral candidate you favor.

SHOPPING UP A STORM

By Katy McGuire Caire

"Breakfast like a king, lunch like a prince and dinner like a pauper"—so goes the old say-ing, implying better health and so forth to those who follow the mandate.

With all the special buys at our area supermarkets on bacon, and sausage and eggs and fruit and other breakfast or brunch essentials, "royal" morning or mid-morning meals are no problem at all—there's something for every taste and budget.

Whether you're grabbing your breakfast "on the run" or taking the time for a more lei-surely meal, you can feel quite royally indulged with some of these offerings.

Pork sausage links of your choice, Italian, Cajun, regular, in varying degrees of "hotness" line the counters, along with specials on smoked sausage links. And, there's bulk sausage too, from mild to medium to hot, for the choosing.

Bacon's on special these days also, as are flour and biscuit and pancake mixes, and a profusion of fresh fruit to go along with it all; so, let's start the day right with a good breakfast (or brunch for the late-risers, or those who want a second break-fast.) (I'm one of these; I often enjoy breakfast foods at my midday meal, but don't judge by me—I also like pizza for break-fast at times!)

Here's an easy breakfast dish which takes advantage of the good prices on sausage and eggs and potatoes at our markets:

KITCHEN SINK FRITTATA

("You can put anything in this" say the authors of "Encore" cookbook, compiled by the Junior League of Nashville, Tenn.)

1 lb. bulk sausage
4 cups peeled and sliced potatoes

1 large onion, sliced
8 eggs
1/2 tsp. poultry seasoning

Fry sausage in skillet until crumbly. Remove from pan with slotted spoon and set aside. Cook potatoes and onion in sausage drippings until crisp. Return sausage to pan. Add eggs, beaten, and poultry seasonings. Cook until set, then put under broiler until crusty. (Six servings)

Last time I cooked this, I placed a dish of sliced tomatoes, (pepper and salt-dusted) under the broiler also, to serve along with the frittata; and at times, I just "chunk up" a couple of tomatoes in the mixture.

A variation on this theme is: OLE POTATO SCRAMBLE

1/2 lb. bulk sausage
1/2 medium onion, minced
1/2 small bell (green) pepper, chopped
2 medium potatoes (washed well or peeled) chopped
1/4 tsp. oregano
4 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese

Brown and drain sausage, and discard drippings. Return sausage to skillet. Add onion, potatoes, oregano, eggs and cheese, working mixture with wooden spoon or spatula until eggs are set to desired firmness. (Four servings)

(From "American Bed and Breakfast" Cookbook by the Bed Post Writers Group, East Woods Press, Charlotte, N.C.)

I like to saute sliced apples and onions along with sausage

It was a packed house Friday morning for the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Morning Edition. The community update given by the respective community leaders was very encouraging.

Prospects appear to be good and it appears that our area has an excellent chance to experience substantial growth in the not too distant future.

The possibility of a regional airport being constructed at Stennis Air Park sounds great and its construction would all be in the Buffer Zone. This would not have an affect on industry at the air park or on the schools, according to Supervisor President Ronald Cuevas.

Cuevas indicated several times that the vo-tech center and the new county school location would be assets to a regional airport. Hancock is one of six sites being considered for the new airport facility.

Paul Montjoy, general manager for Diamondhead Property Owners Association, talked about the great growth of that community.

Diamondhead now has a broad base of residents, including many families with children, as well as a new 16,000-square-foot school under construction.

Montjoy remarked that the new community of Diamondhead is leading the entire coastal area in new home construction.

In commenting on assessed property, Montjoy said Diamondhead has $20 million; Waveland $24 million; and Bay St. Louis $29 million.

The newest Hancock community has a $4 million plus budget with an employment of about 110 to 135 persons.

Bob Hubbard, Waveland Alderman, representing the City of Waveland, reported the fast growing city has more than 7,000 residents and has the lowest tax mileage across the nation for a city.

Bay St. Louis Mayor Edward Favre talked about how citizen participation has been very helpful to his administration.

The Bay mayor commented that a new fleet of police vehicles are on order, as well as a new fire truck.

Volunteers in "Project Pride" have really helped bring more tourism to the city, Favre added.

The current county supervisors set out at the beginning of the administration to accomplish several goals.

Cuevas indicated all of the goals have been achieved or are in the process of being implemented.

Permits are now being sought for a sand beach, and I am happy about this because this is one of the areas I have been involved with for many years as a member of the Sand Beach Advisory Committee.

The reconstruction of Texas Flat Road is now a reality and will surely be a great asset to our county in years to come.

There are several new prospects in the industrial category looking very hard at Hancock County. We need to do everything we can to encourage them to locate here, as new businesses mean jobs, revenue and continuing growth.

The Morning Edition, sponsored by chamber member Merchants Bank was a great event. Those of you not in attendance missed a very informative presentation.

Congratulations are in order for GE Plastics upon being named the Community Pride Award winner.

GE Plastics is one of our industries located at the Port Bienville Industrial Park in Hancock County.

WASHINGTON REPORT

By Senator Thad Cochran

Seafood inspection bill

Senator Thad Cochran guided a seafood inspection bill to Senate passage.

Cochran, a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, and a sponsor of the "Fish Safety Act in 1990," served as Republican floor manager of the proposal to include fish among the foods that must be inspected by the Agriculture Department.

"Congress should take the initiative to provide seafood consumers with the same safety assurances they now receive under the federal meat and poultry inspection programs," Cochran said prior to Senate passage of the bill.

Cochran said the seafood safety bill is important to Mississippi.

"Mississippi has both a dynamic coast seafood industry, which produces a significant amount of the nation's shrimp, oysters and other fish products, and the world's largest catfish industry," he said.

Mississippi produces nearly 80 percent of the nation's supply of farm-raised catfish, with nearly 100,000 acres in production.

Supporters of the bill said that less than 12 percent of American seafood currently undergoes inspection, and only seven percent of the almost 2,000 U.S. seafood processors participate through existing voluntary inspection programs.

The Senate-passed bill calls for a comprehensive and mandatory program of inspection of fish, fish products, and fish processing establishments. The bill calls for the USDA to set national minimum standards for safety, and for a program of consumer education and fish safety research.

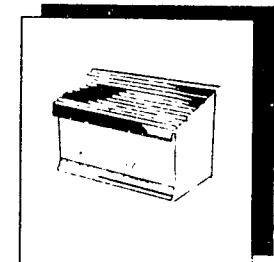

Cochran urged his colleagues to support the bill supported by both consumer and industry groups, including the National Fisheries Institute, Public Voice, and the National Restaurant Association.

The "Fish Safety Act of 1990" must now be considered by the House of Representatives.

Big kickoff

A record of more than $40,000 of the $110,000 goal was announced. The campaign will continue through October. (Staff photo by Randy Ponder).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Diamondhead residents pay their share of taxes

Letters to the Editor, I would like to reply to the letter written by Lorraine Taylor and appeared in the Thursday, Sept. 20 edition of the Sea Coast Echo.

In Mrs. Taylor's letter she states, "For those of you not familiar with the Diamondhead area." Evidently she is very unfamiliar with Diamondhead.

First, the roadwork approved by the board of supervisors is on a public road that passes through Diamondhead. It does not circle the golf courses as stated by Mrs. Taylor.

All of the streets in Diamond-head were constructed by the developer and the property owners, and without county funds, and are maintained by the residents of Diamondhead.

I wonder if Mrs. Taylor is aware of the property, road and bridge and school taxes that are paid to the county each year. These figures might shock her.

None of these taxes is used for the benefit of the residents of Diamondhead. I am sick and tired of some who think the residents of Diamondhead are the retired rich.

Teens need affordable, fun, safe entertainment

To the Editor:

Young people today are looking for places to go on weekends where they can enjoy friendship, see and be seen.

Media stories show them cruising, going to the mall, or hanging out in dangerous places.

Wouldn't it be nice if teens today could enjoy some of the simple things we senior citizens did many years ago?

Oh, I know it's a different world now full of crass commercialism, liquor and drugs...even a movie date costs plenty.

During our young years, few had money to take a date anywhere...even to a movie for 25 cents, so house parties were weekly affairs.

Our parents encouraged these parties, opened their homes to us and usually every kid chipped in, bringing a few cokes or snacks, at times parents made sandwiches or a cake.

We danced to recordings, played games, swapped stories and jokes. In fact, we're still doing that and enjoying it today.

Here's a suggestion which might bring teens today a low-cost fun date free of the crime and drug scene.

Let's find a place (American Legion, VFW, school gym, Hancock County Center) large enough to accommodate several hundred and offer entertainment.

There are many aspiring young bands just looking for exposure—have a "Battle of the Bands," no fee, a small prize or plaque, the winner decided by teens in attendance.

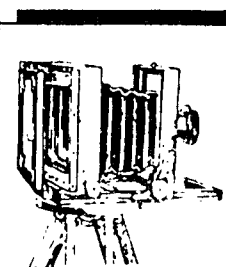

Playing there may result in future paying gigs, or even discovery of a future big-name band. It's a teen dance!

Perhaps hold an Amateur Night for singers, comedians, dancers—whatever; again, the winner chosen by the audience. Is there a Madonna, Bon Jovi or Rosanne just hoping for a break?

First we must know if our young teens would like and support something like this. They would need a committee to invite the performers, would have to cough up, say $2, to attend (hall rental, clean-up expense) but it would be a non-profit deal.

Let's hear from you young people, do you want a weekly party like this?

Regards,
Royce P. Kaupp

At a recessed meeting held September 13, The Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, American Legion went on record as favoring a Home Guard Unit to be set up in Hancock County. The unit will be operated under the guidelines of the American Legion, and will replace the National Guard which will be called to active service. Units will be set up at Kiln, Logtown and Bay St. Louis. These units will consist of platoons. Two platoons being set up in Bay St. Louis. Each platoon will consist of about 40 men. The Home Guard will require no training, but non-veterans will be instructed by veterans regarding military duties. Meetings will be held every Friday at 245 Washington Street at 8 p.m.

At a recent meeting held in the office of Hon. August Kellar, this city, at which was present some of the most influential and prominent men of Bay St. Louis and Waveland and the above club (Bay-Waveland Yacht Club), was organized, and present indications point to its permanent success. The club building will be located at the head of Washington Street and, we are told, will be thoroughly modern in architecture. A club of this kind has long been wanted in this city as for many years past the Bay has been a racing center, but all of the great races were prearranged in the Crescent City. Hereafter they can be arranged here. Besides being a yacht club it will also offer many social advantages, as it will be handsomely fitted, and during the summer months concerts and other amusements will be some of its prominent features. The capital stock has been fixed at $10,000, divided into 400 shares at $25. It is presumed the required number of names will be easily ascertainable. The Echo welcomes this organization and wishes it a brilliant future.

The following-named gentlemen, all prominent and well known, have been elected officers of the Bay St. Louis and Waveland Yacht Club: T.R. Richardson, commodore; L.H. Fairchild, vice-commodore; O. Elmer, rear commodore; W.H. Cook, secretary; and August Kellar, treasurer.

Balmoral opens Waveland Players' new season Sept. 27

Waveland Players open their 1990-91 season with Michael Frayn's comedy, Balmoral on Thursday, Sept. 27, 8:15 p.m. at the Waveland Civic Center. The show repeats Friday and Saturday, Sept. 28-29 at 8:15 p.m. and on Sunday, Sept. 30 at 3:15 p.m. Tickets are $5 at the door.

The play is set in 1937 in the 16th century castle in the highlands of Scotland. Since the world communist movement succeeded in Britain, Balmoral is no longer a summer resort for royalty but a retreat for writers, accountable to a touchy bureaucrat and subject to unannounced inspectors.

Housekeeping chores are the job of a former under-coachman who drags his mops and pail (in a silver champagne bucket) across a great room of the castle where the writers bicker and try to keep warm.

A visitor arrives: Kochetov an aristocratic journalist from imperialist Russia, come to interview the famous author, Hugh Walpole. He is accompanied by an official government guide, alas, Walpole has disappeared.

The action and dialog reflect the same kind of hijinks of Frayn's Noises Off!

The cast includes Ted Stechmann as the butler, Larry Timmerman, Don George and Carol Young as writers, Tommy Worrel as the "warden," Eugene Favre as Kochetov, and Michelle Dean as the government guide.

Co-directors are Edith Back and Valerie Fisher. Producer is Dottie Overall. The set was designed by Betty Stechmann. For more information, call Edith Back at 467-2445.

Speaking of the World Monitor Television interviews, Favre said, "I think it's a good idea. Hopefully it will open enough eyes nationally to the comments being made by city governments about the low counts so that the deadline may be extended again."

He added that those people who were not counted in the census, or are not sure if they were counted, can assist the Census Bureau in obtaining an accurate count for the city through the "Were You Counted?" program.

Tigers Win!

Beat Vancleave, 16-7

Special to the Echo

The Bay High Tigers gave coach Rocky Gaudin his first win, Friday night, with a 16-7 drubbing of the Vancleave Bulldogs.

Bay High won the toss and elected to kick off. Vancleave's Robert Williams took the opening kick at his own 10 and returned it to the 34. After a complete pass moved the ball across midfield and into Tiger territory, Ronilbes Wilkerson hit Vancleave's Robert Williams and caused a fumble. The Tigers recovered at their own 37.

The Tigers then mounted an impressive drive on their first possession, with the key play coming with the ball at the Vancleave 15 on a 25 yard keeper play by quarterback Charlie Mitchell that put the ball at the Bulldog 20. The Tigers moved the ball down to the one on the running of Jason Loicano and Scott Rogers. On fourth and goal at the one yard line, with 3:04 remaining in the first quarter, Mitchell dove over for the touchdown. The extra point kick was no good and the Tigers led 6-0.

The Tigers kicked to Vancleave who returned to their own 25. On good defensive plays by tackle Keith Corr and line-backer Brenna Compretta, the Bulldogs were forced to punt. Bay High took over at their 44.

An exchange of punts ended the first quarter with the Tigers ahead 6-0 and Vancleave in possession at their own 20.

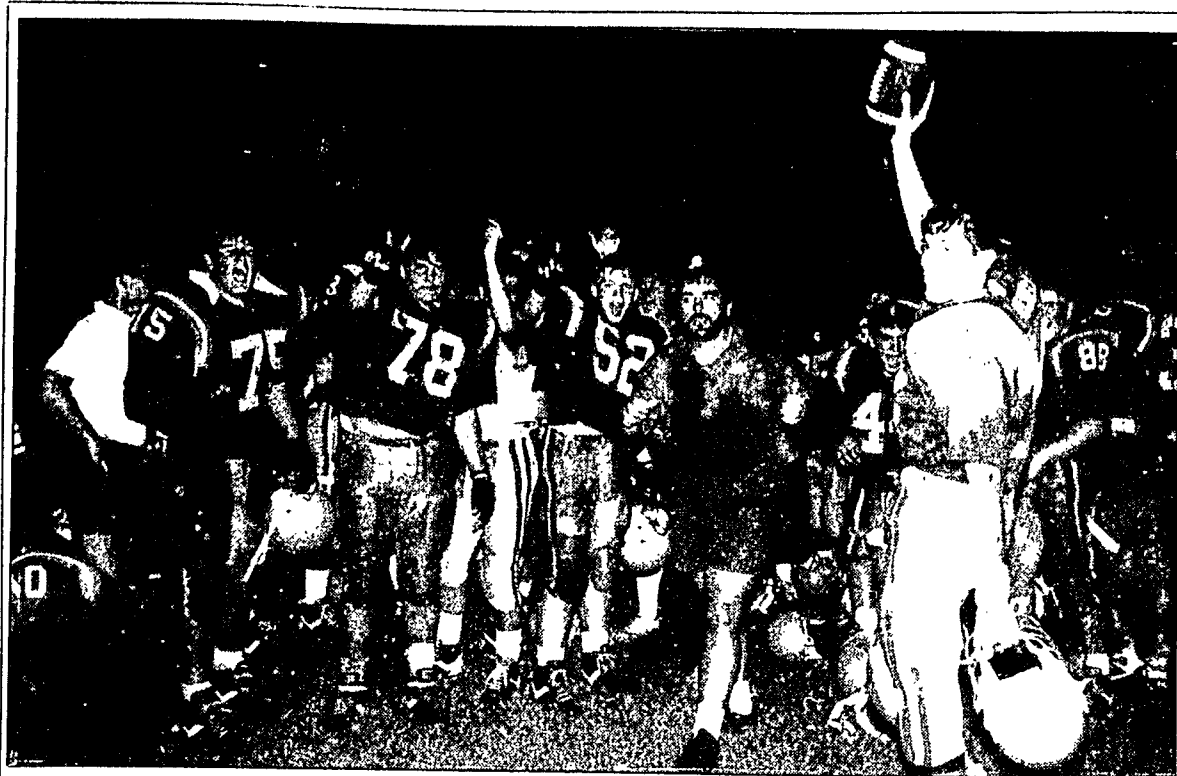

On the first play of the second quarter, Jeff Hopgood, freshman Tiger tackle forced another Bulldog fumble at the Vancleave 38. On 4th and 3 at the Vancleave 33, Mitchell passed complete to Scott Rogers at the Bulldog 20. On the next play Mitchell hit Rogers at the Vancleave 5 yard line and Rogers ran in for the touchdown. However, the play was called back as the Tigers were penalized for illegal motion setting the ball at the 25. After two incomplete passes with 6:58 remaining in the half, Jason Loicano kicked a 42 yard field goal to put the Tigers up 9-0.

Then on first down Charlie Mitchell picked off a Henry pass at the Tiger 15 and with 4:32 remaining in the first half, Bay High took over at that point.

The next Tiger drive stalled and they were forced to punt. The ball rolled dead on the Bulldog 46 with 2:34 remaining in the first half. A personal foul penalty moved the ball to the Tiger 33. After a quarterback sack by Tiger linebacker Chris Barlow and an incomplete pass, Jeff Hopgood recovered another fumble for the Tiger at the 48 yard line.

Neither team could mount a scoring drive and the first half ended with Tigers leading 9-0.

Celebration

The Tigers took the second half kickoff and drove to the Vancleave 22 on key runs by Scott Rogers. But the drive stalled at that point and Vancleave took over on downs.

The Tigers defense rose to the occasion once again and the Bulldogs had to punt. The Tigers mounted another threat only to be intercepted at the Bulldog 14 with 4:10 remaining in the 3rd quarter.

Bulldog quarterback Jimmy Henry began to move the Bulldog offense on the next drive. A 30 yard pass from Henry to senior tight end Bill Wese placed the ball at the Tiger 44. An interference call placed the ball at the Tiger 30 and on the next play Henry scrambled to the Tiger 5 with 1:35 remaining in the third quarter Robert Williams ran in from the five yard line for a touchdown. The PAT was good and the game tightened to 9-7.

After an exchange of punts the Tigers took over on their own 25 with 10:25 remaining in the game. With 3rd down and 11 at the Bay High 44 and about 6:00 remaining, Charlie Mitchell hit sophomore Marcel Whavers in stride at the Bulldog 20 and he streaked into the Bulldog end zone. Unfortunately the Tigers had an ineligible receiver down field and the play was called back. But on the next play the Tigers came right back with Mitchell hitting senior tight end Mike Sharp at the Vancleave 7 for first down and goal to go. Two plays later Loicano ran in from the five yard line for the touchdown. The point after was good and with 5:06 remaining the Tigers led

Hawks claw Cougars, win fourth straight

Special to the Echo
BY BELINDA LILES

The Hancock Hawks took their 4th straight victory Friday night, defeating Lawrence County 21-20 in a close contest.

"This was a hard game against a hard team," commented Hawk Coach Irvin Favre. "We knew we were out-weighted from the start. We had our hands full. We had some boys playing ball who were sick and a couple of boys recovering from injuries. David King was taken to the hospital during the game for a possible broken arm."

The Hawks came out fired up after Terrance Goff kicked the ball into the end zone. Lawrence County ran three plays and had to punt. Goff received the punt on the 24 yard line and returned it to the Cougar 37. Two plays later quarterback Regan Ladner hit split end Dennis Devilbiss with a 33 yard touchdown pass. Gabe Lumpkin added the PAT for a 7-0 Hawk lead.

The Hawk defensive unit was put to the test for the remainder of the first quarter as the Cougars retained possession until defensive guard Steve Miller sacked quarterback Lamond Bridges for a loss.

The second quarter began as Goff returned the punt to the 35. The Hawks drove to the 16 where they were driven back to the 48 by penalties and a good defensive stand by the Cougars. Hancock was forced to punt with a fourth and 42.

Lawrence County downed the ball on the 17 and mounted a drive that found them on the Hawks 25 yard line with 4:58 to go in the second quarter. At this time Cougar QB Bridges found split back Willie Preston in the Hawks secondary and threw for a 25 yard TD strike.

The PAT was no good bringing the halftime score to 7-6. The second half began as Hancock's Goff returned the ball 12 yards after the kickoff. The ball rested on the 23 when running back Bobby Doyle busted loose for a 35 yard carry to the Cougars' 42 yard line. Two plays later Ladner connected with running back Vince for a 26 yard pass to the 16. Three plays later the Hawks tried a different approach as Ladner handed off to Goff who found tight end Ike Majors open and hit him for a TD pass.

Jeron Vince brought in a pass from Ladner to complete a two point conversion. The play was called back due to a motion penalty forcing the Hawks to kick instead. The kick was good bringing the score to 14-6 with 8:24 remaining in the third quarter.

Goff kicked to the 15 and the Cougars brought the ball back to the 31 yard line.

The 'brothers of pain' defense rose to the occasion as Miller was back on the attack and held the Cougar carrier for a three yard gain which brought up third and four. On the next play defensive tackle Jody Ladner nailed QB Bridges for a 3 yard loss and Lawrence County was forced to punt.

Goff returned the punt for a seven yard gain and the Hawk offense went to work from the 42. Ladner handed off to Vince who picked up three yards. Doyle added another yard. Vince's number was called again and he answered with a 19 yard pick-up. Goff added another 11 yards bringing the ball to the 24. There Ladner passed to Majors who steam rolled to the 10. Running back Jeff Favre added five making it second and goal. Two plays later found it fourth and goal when Ladner handed off to Goff who bulldozed over for the score.

The PAT was good widening Hancock's lead to 21-6. Lawrence County took over on the 20 as Goff's kickoff was downed in the end zone.

The next play spelled trouble for the Hawks as the Cougar QB found split back Preston open down the sideline. Preston raced 80 yards to paydirt, bringing the score to 21-12 with 1:20 remaining in the third quarter.

Lawrence County added two more as their conversion play was complete narrowing the score to 21-14.

Moving into the fourth quarter with 10:37 remaining on the clock, Hancock's drive was stalled on the 48 yard line where they were forced to punt.

The Cougars took over on the 22 and their offense went to work. After an incomplete pass, QB Bridges found running back May open and threw what seemed to be a TD pass but Favre managed to run down the wide open receiver bringing him down on the Hawks 33. Hancock's defense held tough bringing up a fourth and five situation. Then the Cougar QB connected with Preston who carried the ball to the 20. Lawrence County pounded on the defensive line for the next four plays. Finally with second and goal from the six, they drove in for the TD. The Cougars, behind by a narrow one point margin tried for a two point conversion to take the lead. Their attempt was stopped when Regan Ladner made the tackle on the one making the final score of the night 21-20.

"This was the most physical game of the year," stated assistant Coach Kevin Byrd. "It helped build character which is fast becoming tradition at Hancock. Games that build character bring you a long way," Byrd added.

The Hawks travel to St. Stanislaus next Friday night to challenge the rocks for their second district game.

Fired-up Rocks burn Cats

Special to the Echo
BY TOM ACKERMAN

How does the old saying go - It only takes a spark to get a fire going...

Friday night, at Long Beach, the St. Stanislaus Rock A-Chaws got fired up and left the Bearcats in the ashes, 28-0, giving the Rocks a 1-0 mark in division 8-4A play, and 3-1 overall.

It took the better part of two quarters for the Rocks to lay the kindling just right. The flint was provided by the SSC defense who held the Bearcats motionless at the Rock 44 yard line—with a key tackle by Greg Altess to stir up a little breeze.

On the Cats' third down, Rock Ken Booker ignited his team with a pass interception and a 56-yard run to the Long Beach 4. On first down, Booker carried again to put the Rocks on the board 6-0, with 6:02 on the second quarter clock.

Robbie Bourgeois kicked for the point after bringing the score to 7-0.

The Bearcats were held to four plays and a punt on key tackles by Scott Petersen and Mike Davidge, and the Rocks took over on their own 27.

On second down of the first series, Mike Lee rekindled the flame and broke through on a 40-yard run to the Long Beach 34.

After a series of confusing penalty calls against the Rocks that apparently only caused a little simmering, Booker carried from the 30 to the 15, Tate Thrifflay created a little steam with a power run to the 8, and Mike Lee fired it up with another TD, 13-0, with 1:46 left in the half.

A bad snap on the PAT forced a passing situation which failed.

But the Rocks weren't finished burning the Cats just yet.

Long Beach was held on their next possession, and the Rocks had possession at the 43 yard line with 42 seconds left on the

Pirates run over Crusaders, 32-6

Special to the Echo
By Patrick McKee

The Pass Christian Pirates overpowered the Mercy Cross Crusaders 32-6 Friday night. The Pirates, now 3-1 for the season, simply outpassed and outrushed the Crusaders in their third home game of the season.

"They did a terrific job," coach Joseph Brown said praising his Pirate's offensive line. "The defense also did a super job. They played their hearts out."

The Pirates outrushed the Crusaders 287 yards to a 13-0 lead. They also passed for a total of 173 yards to the Crusader's 64 yards. "We did some passing," the coach said.

The scoring began when Charles Lizana dashed into the end zone during the first quarter. He also kicked for the extra point to give the Pirates a 7-0 edge.

Then in the second quarter Tony Jacobs charged across the goal line to add six more to the Pirate's total. The PAT was no good, and when the teams left the field at halftime the score was 13-0.

Penalties hampered the Pirates from putting more points on the scoreboard during the first half. When asked what his strategy for the second half would be, Brown said, "We have to go out and mix it up. We've got to run the ball and we've got to throw the ball."

And that is what they did. In the third quarter Lizana ran the ball across the end zone again, and he also kicked the extra point making the score 20-0. Not to be outdone, Jerome Malley, who gained 153 yards on 18 carries, hustled into scoring country to make it 26-0. An attempted two points conversion was unsuccessful.

But the Crusaders refused to give up. A determined defense would not allow the Pirates to score again in the third quarter. Then Mercy Cross did what no other team has done in regular time against the Pirates. They scored. With 5:55 left in the game Chris Reddin muscled his way across the goal line to make the score 26-6. A two point conversion attempt was no good. Penalties continued to plague the Pirates, and more opportunities to score were lost. Finally, Winfred Rials ran the ball in to make the final score 32-6. The two point conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

After the game, in response to a question about a team scoring against the Pirates in regular time, Brown said, "It had to happen sooner or later. But we won the game."

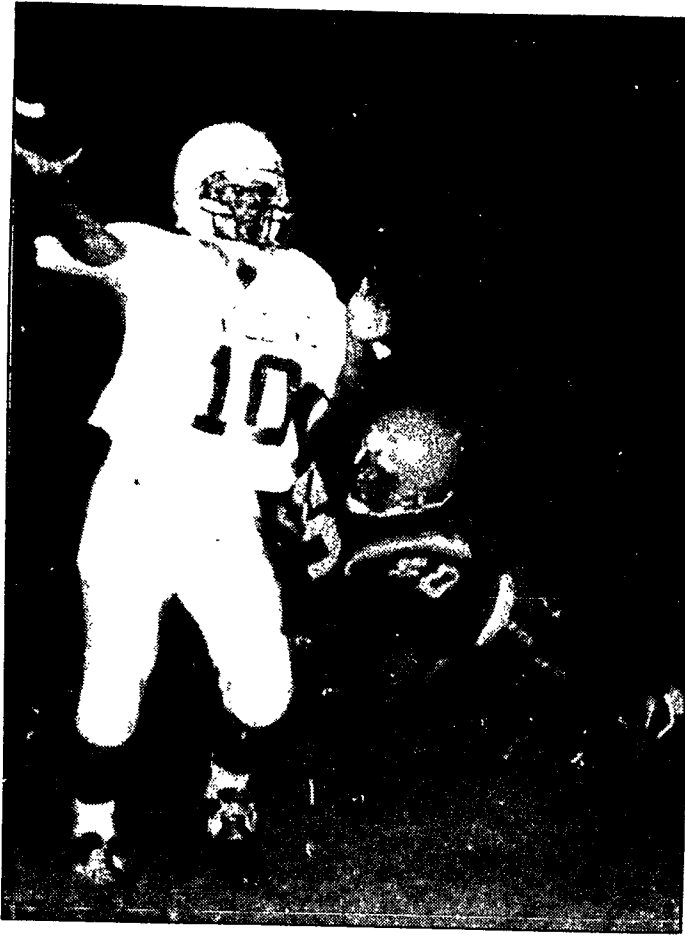

"The Crusaders have a good ball club," he said. "I think that coach Ellis has done a fine job with them. They can be impressive."

"We got tired," said Crusader head coach Glenn Ellis. "We were not in good condition. We hurt ourselves."

Coach Ellis did feel that the team played a better second half. He felt that their running game had been much better. "There was some good effort out there," he said.

Looking towards future games, Ellis said, "We cannot concentrate on the negative. We have to find the positive elements and work from there."

Next week Pass Christian takes on powerful Stone County in a home game that starts at 7:30 p.m., Friday night.

Vancleave came storming back and drove to the Tigers 21 and seemed to be threatening to score again. But senior Mike Sharp stepped in and intercepted a Henry pass at the Bay High 10 yard line to kill the drive. The Tigers took over with 3:40 remaining.

The Tiger drive stalled and had to punt. The Bulldogs blocked the punt and took over on the Tiger 10 yard line with 2:30 remaining.

The Tiger defense rose to the occasion once again on key play-in the secondary by Compretta and Sharp. The Bulldogs then attempted a field goal. The kick was short and the Tigers took over with 2:08 remaining.

At this point Vancleave was out of time outs and the Tigers had no problem running the clock out to lock up their first win of the season.

The Tiger defense put forth a good effort with key plays from Hopgood, Barlow, Coupretta and Sharp.

A penalty on roughing the receiver against Long Beach moved the ball to the Cats' 27. On second down, Rock hurler Bill Dreher connected on a 33-yard toss to receiver Galen Smith who was on his way to the goal line on the pass. The score, with 6 seconds left, put the Rocks up 19-0.

The two-point conversion was successfully executed on a run by Mike Lee to give SSC a 21-0 half-time advantage.

It took the better part of another quarter for the Rocks to get-crackling again. Late in the third period, SSC's flame was dwindling a little as they stalled momentarily around mid-field.

Thriffley, Lee and Booker, the triple threat, ignited the Rocks again and moved the ball to the Long Beach 41 to set up a 41-yard pass to Mickey Quinlan for another TD with 1:34 left in the third quarter. Bubba O'Brien's kick for the point after was good, and the Rocks burned up the field 28-0.

Next week, the Rock-A-Chaws, 3-1, face the undefeated 4-0 Hancock Hawks at SSC. Game time 7:30.

REFLECTIONS ON LIFE

By Father Jerome LeDoux, SVD

National Night Out on Crime is a great concept which is expanding annually into a bigger, bolder statement by communities across the breadth and length of the United States.

In a nutshell, this yearly observance aims at serving notice to the criminal element that law-abiding citizens will not give them free reign, and commit themselves to stemming the rising tide of crime.

We of the Tremé Area in New Orleans did what so many other areas of this and other cities around the country did: we wended our way to the First Pilgrim Baptist Church, sang religious songs of faith and fired words of stiff defiance.

"In the name of Jesus," we sang, "we have the victory!" We continued: "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine; in my neighborhood, I'm gonna let it shine!"

While a relatively skimpy but lively congregation chorused every word, minister after minister unleashed thunderous salvos of Holy Scripture at the Satan-inspired evils prowling our streets and even our dwelling places.

However, the lingering feeling that we were preaching to the converted was dramatically confirmed when we stopped outside at the end of the assembly.

A police blockade of an entire square block was just breaking up, and people were milling about trying to assess just what had occurred.

Although we saw nothing in the newspaper to confirm it, what seems to have happened is that a policeman was seriously injured in a shootout within a stone's throw of our assembly.

Far to the south of us, in what is called Uptown New Orleans, some people were in churches while others were making their statement in cookouts and block parties in parks and streets.

Amid all the hope generated by the crime protest celebration, a man was murdered a short distance away.

Things were very much the same a half dozen miles to the north, in what is called downtown New Orleans. There were the same kinds of songs, speeches and general celebrations—and, likewise, a man was murdered within shouting range of the lively protests.

Whistling in the dark? It could be argued that the National Night Out on Crime is more symbolic and self-assuring than real in terms of making a dent in crime, or, as the Crime Dog says, "taking a bite out of crime."

Nevertheless, it must also be affirmed that, at the very least, the observance does accomplish a consciousness raising and a stiffening of resolve.

Further, the crime protest celebrations do steer us away from complacency, apathy and the appeasement of criminals. The European community debated through the decade of the 1930s whether they should oppose Hitler or appease him.

In similar fashion, the world community debated over the last decade whether to oppose or appease Saddam Hussein, the Butcher of Baghdad. Since we know the results of appeasement in both cases, we know what not to do with the criminals in our streets.

One thing is certain: for all our singing, preaching, cooking out and celebrating, the hardened street hoods will call our bluff, if indeed it is only a bluff.

It may take a while for us to get untracked, but we must be about the business of discovering specific, concrete ways to take a bite out of crime.

Where parents themselves are delinquent, they need to guide their smaller children stringently at home and to coerce them to attend and be active in both school and church.

For their part, the school, church, city and state must align with the parents.

LOOKING INSIDE

By Pastor Bob Guidry, Jr.

Miracles on the Gulf Coast

Have you ever wondered where all of the big miracles of God have gone?

There have been times in the past when it seemed God was doing all sorts of things. Today people wonder if God even exists.

All of the great miracles God has done in the past have not ceased. In fact, God is probably doing more today than he did in the past. The reason we don't know about it is because it is not reported by the news media.

Just in case you think I'm talking about theory and not about fact, I'll give you some examples.

I was in north Louisiana preaching for a pastor friend of mine named George Procell. A man from that church had a bad auto accident. He told us that he had some pain in his lower back.

We asked him to sit down and raise his legs. As we held his legs in our hands, we noticed one was about an inch shorter than the other.

We continued to hold his legs up, and we started to pray. As we prayed his leg started to grow out until it was the same length as the other. He stood up and told us the pain was completely gone.

Since that time I have prayed for at least 20 people with the same problem and every one of them, without exception, has been healed.

Recently one of the ladies in our church prayed for a little girl who had drowned, and she was raised from the dead.

We have seen people healed from cancer, hepatitis and various infections, as well as colds and the flu.

Everything I have mentioned has been only in the area of physical healing. In addition, there have been untold numbers of people who have received mental and emotional healing from things like stress, fears, guilt and the desire to commit suicide.

Then there are the miracles God has done in other areas like finances, jobs, restoring marriages and meeting the everyday needs of people right here in Hancock County.

The things God has done in the past, he is still doing today and will continue to do in the future.

The things God has done in other places around the world, he is doing here in Hancock County and all over the Gulf Coast.

If you haven't heard of all the things God is doing here and now, you have not been listening to the right source of information.

In order to see the miraculous things God is doing today, you have to be at the place God is performing them. Today God is moving, more than ever, in the local church that is not afraid to step out and do what Jesus told us.

"In my name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover." — Mark 16:17-18.

Today God is doing miracles in Hancock County and on the Gulf Coast.

Healthy hearts

Combination of sensible diet, exercise stressed for healthier lifestyle

BY JANET MCQUEEN
Be good to your heart. The message is being echoed this week by the American Heart Association as it observes "Food Festival Week."

Locally, a group of health care professionals has planned an informative evening of delicious (and healthy) food, exercise tips and practical advice on planning a healthier lifestyle.

Clinical dietitian Anne Schmidt invites the public Tuesday evening to the Hancock Medical Center dining room, where guests may partake of "heart-healthy" recipes prepared by chef Jo Ann Hanson of Plantation Cafe and Billy Pappas, acting Firemed Chief with the Mobile Fire Department and avid cook.

Andrea Loiacano, fitness instructor at Loiacano's Health Club, and Geoff Kergosien, licensed physical therapist at Hancock Medical Center, will offer information and a demonstration of exercises for all ages.

Kergosien stressed the "wellness" approach to improved health—noting a change of diet or the addition of exercise is good, but a combination of both is better.

Pappas, who describes himself as "the original food monster," lost 40 pounds during the last year by reducing the amount of fat in his diet.

His motivation was witnessing the fatal heart attacks of two men in their thirties, in addition to many others who literally "ate themselves to death."

"As a society, we are conditioned to expect ample servings of food and feel cheated when we don't get them. It's a matter of rethinking the way you eat," he said.

"For instance, fruit is the perfect breakfast food to fuel the metabolism in the morning...forget the bacon and sausage."

"Use skim milk instead of whole milk...the nutritional value is slightly higher while the fat content is much lower. Fat is the enemy," he said.

"If you look at the nutritional breakdown printed on a package, you can figure out which foods to avoid. Fat is 10 calories per gram, while carbohydrates and protein are only four calories."

"Multiply the fat grams by 10. If that number is more than half of the total calories of the product, the fat content is too high."

Major fat offenders are butter, margarine, ice cream, palm kernel oil and animal fats, all of which enhance flavor or taste good. Pappas suggests, "What you lose in fat, make up in seasonings."

"Rethink your behavior if you want to improve the quality of your life," he said.

Hanson and Pappas offer the following recipes for "heart healthy" meals. Additional recipes will be available Tuesday night at the program, which will be from 6:30-8 p.m. For additional information, call Hancock Medical at 467-9081.

Handling snack attacks

Snacking. Is it a habit? An emotional release? A natural response to nutritional and energy needs?

If the answer to any of the above is "yes," the American Heart Association has good news for you: "It's okay."

Whether snacking is a habit or a temporary response to energy or emotional needs you can make snacking a smash success if you choose low-calorie heart-healthy foods.

"Most adults feel guilty when they snack," said Dr. Bryan Barksdale, cardiologist, American Heart Association, Mississippi affiliate. "We grew up thinking snacking was a 'no-no'—and it probably was, because it meant sneaking to the cookie jar for a high calorie 'forbidden' but available treat."

Not so in the '90s. Snacking can be healthy, if you choose treats that are low in fat and cholesterol. The added benefit is that they probably will be lower in calories.

Cholesterol is a fatty substance found in animal products. It can build up in the inner lining of blood vessels and cause them to narrow. Eventually the blood vessels may become blocked.

If this blockage occurs in a blood vessel serving the heart, a heart attack may occur.

Products high in cholesterol include meat, poultry, egg yolks, whole milk, cream, cheese and butter. At snack time you'll find it in ice cream, malts, iced cakes, french fries, chips, dips, donuts, candy bars and most fast foods.

The AHA has tips on how to make the best of what the kid in us thinks of as a good thing—snacks or treats—during its Food Festival, Sept. 23-29.

You can find our more information at local participating supermarkets.

How can you make munching a smashing success?

"Go for the real thing," says Barksdale. "Choose snacks made with familiar, wholesome foods with minimal processing—snacks that contribute to nutrition in addition to filling a need."

These snacks include fresh fruits, which are in abundance at supermarkets and drive-in markets along with vegetables, low-fat yogurt, most unsalted nuts (except macadamia and cashew) and breadsticks and bagels.

For a calorie free break try these snacking alternatives; ice water with a slice of lemon, hot tea, calorie-free beverages; a brisk walk or a break away from what you were doing when you had the "snack attack"; or listening to music, reading a book—even brushing your teeth.

For more information on heart-healthy snacking and the American Heart Association's Food Festival contact the Mississippi Affiliate of the American Heart Association at (601) 981-4721.

Mississippi Coast Crimestoppers

Mississippi Coast Crimestoppers began its fifth consecutive year of assistance to the Gulf Coast in July.

Crimestoppers is a community program geared toward public involvement in the fight against crime. It offers cash rewards up to $1,000 and anonymity to citizens who furnish information leading to the arrest and indictment of felony crime offenders and to the capture of felony fugitives.

Since its inception in June of 1986, Crimestoppers has increased its area of responsibility to include Hancock, Harrison, Jackson and Stone counties; and has paid 40 rewards totaling more than $5,000.

Stolen property recovered from these calls is valued at more than $250,000. Crimestoppers is an arm of local law enforcement working together to develop a community offensive against violent crimes and theft and to motivate the public to cooperate.

A board of prominent Gulf Coast citizens and representatives of law enforcement agencies approves and sets the reward amounts, which can be as high as $1,000.

Crimestoppers is a non-profit organization and all donations are tax deductible. A person who wishes to give information on a crime can call their toll free number, 1-800-433-TIPS.

For more information on Crimestoppers, contributions or a speaker to provide your organization with the local program and their activities, write to: Mississippi Gulf Coast Crimestoppers, P. O. Box 1660, Gulfport, MS 39520.

Bananas are no monkey business....

One out of every five Americans will eat bananas that are unloaded in Mississippi.

The yellow tropical fruit, of course, does not grow in our state. But every year, 1 billion pounds of imported bananas are unloaded at the State Port of Gulfport on the Coast.

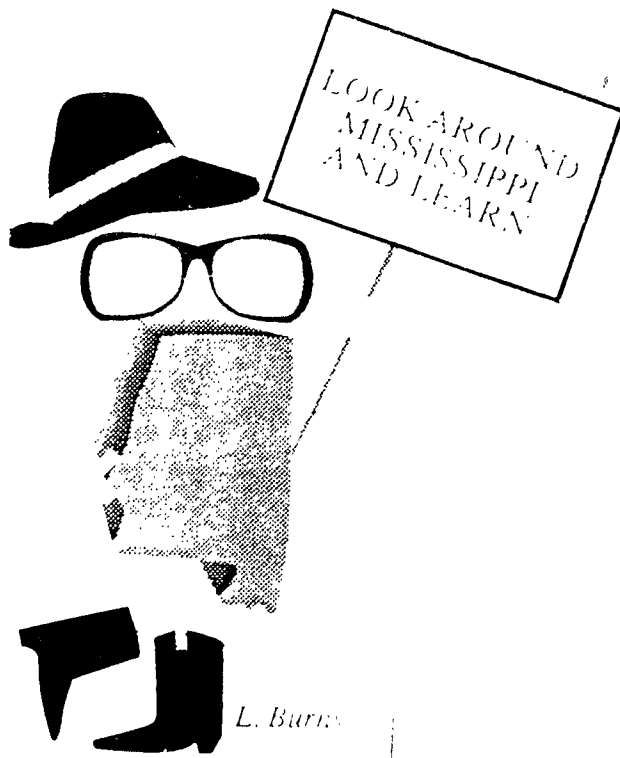

Gulfport boasts the largest banana port in the Gulf of Mexico region. It is the third largest banana port in the country. Each week, cargo ships from Honduras and Mexico deliver 21.7 million pounds of the popular fruit.

Chiquita, Dole and Don Carlos stickers are put on the bananas before they are shipped by truck to 30 other states and Canada. Giant cranes lift the big fruit boxes off the boats and onto 18-wheelers. About 25,000 truckloads leave the Mississippi port every year.
